Donna Fossum and Jean Richardson have recently returned from an exciting vacation in Hollywood where they were the guests of Jean's aunt, Miss Mary Blair, who is an artist for the Walt Disney studios. While there, the girls each received an autographed picture of Disney, lunched at the Brown Derby, visited Grauman's Chinese theater, attended a Lux radio broadcast, and of course saw several movie stars. A trip to remember!

Several years ago when Mrs. Robert McEuen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Weeks, was recovering from a severe illness the doctor recommended a hobby or interest which could be done quietly in bed. Mrs. McEuen became interested in making scrapbooks and today has a total of 90! They range in subjects from the quintuplets to the romance of Edward and Wally. Some of the large books, now on exhibit at The Press office deal with Campbell and Campbell residents. Taken from The Press and from San Jose papers, there are hundreds of pictures and clippings which tell a fascinating story of hobbies, marriages, accidents, strange events, interesting people... in fact its hard to get any work done with them around. Mrs. McEuen now lives in Stockton, where her husband, an army lieutenant, is stationed.

The Santa Clara County Health Department with the cooperation of our local doctors, will give smallpox vaccinations to school children at the Campbell Grammar school on Thursday, April 4, and Friday, April 5. This preventive treatment is a free service.

The health department will vaccinate any adult in this community next Wednesday afternoon, April 10, between the hours of 2:00 and 4:30 p. m.

Pre-school children may be vaccinated at the "Well Baby Clinic" regularly held at the Campbell Grammar school on the second Wednesday of each month. The next "Well Baby Clinic" will be held on April 10, from 9:30 to 11:30.

Local Men Take Over Filling Station

Two recently returned veterans, Barrett and Hoy Little, have taken over the management of the Richfield Service Station on the corner of Campbell Ave. and Winchester Road. They will have in addition to gas and oil, tires and batteries, and will do greasing, washing and complete lubrication.

Hoy Little served in the USN for over two years as a SI/c, and saw duty in the Pacific theater. His brother, Barrett, served in the Army for more than five years, receiving his discharge as a S/Sgt. He had overseas service both in Manila and in the Transport Command.

The station was formerly operated by Claude Smith of Los Gatos.

While in England they will visit in West Bromwich, Manchester, Wigan, Lancaster, and will spend a few days in London before flying home aboard a Pan-American clipper ship.

Mrs. Morley was born in England and is looking forward to visiting her relatives there which include four sisters and a brother of Mrs. Pape's and two sisters of the late Mr. Pape.

After returning to this country they will visit relatives and friends in Detroit, Montreal and Spokane.

Gene Hodges Makes Change

Gene Hodges, for three years employed by Jimmie Arnold's Market here, has entered partnership with Robert Folden and will join him at Avila's Market, where they will operate the meat department. Hodges' new location is at Hamilton Ave. and Meridian Road.

A resident of Campbell for nine years, Hodges was formerly associated with Ray Mathis' Red and White Store on Campbell Ave.

The new partners have plans for expanding into the meat department of a new super market which is to be built at Hamilton and Meridian if building supplies are available.

Jones Elected As Fire Commissioner

Fred Jones was elected at Monday's election as a member of the Board of Fire Commissioners and will join E. C. Merrill and Ethan Lanphear, present commissioners, in operating the fire district.

On the evening of the election, the volunteer firemen met at their regular monthly meeting and elected officers for the coming year. The group re-elected Jack Scott, chief; Quito Scott, assistant chief; Sam Rice, secretary; and Bryce Whitmore, treasurer.

Elected to the membership committee were Clarence Nelson, Volney Garner and Rasmus Neilsen.

It is planned to have fire drills during the summer at 6:00 in the afternoon instead of on Sundays, the first one at the new time to be April 16.

Incorporation Compared With Other Towns

Incorporation in Wasco

The Press believes that those readers interested in incorporation will want to read the following article from "The Wasco News" of Jan. 12, 1945. Wasco has recently incorporated and its weekly paper ran a series of articles on incorporation in which they frequently referred to the incorporated town of Shafter for comparison.

For those who wish to compare figures with Campbell, the editor points out that Wasco has a population larger than Campbell and Shafter a population smaller than Campbell, so that our estimated revenues would probably be the difference between the two.

"Will Incorporation Double Your Taxes?"

"I am against the incorporation of Wasco into a city because I know such a move would ALMOST DOUBLE my taxes."

"Such is the substance of about the only objection that is being heard by those who are now circulating the petitions calling for an election to submit the question to the voters here.

"Most of these objectors admit that at least some benefits would accrue to the community through incorporation which it does not now have. They also admit that Wasco should ultimately incorporate, that at some future time, we will be serving our best interests by having a home government, but they contend that now is not the time for such a move because the increase in the tax burden would be too great.

"Granting every citizen the right to his own way of thinking in matters of this nature, the editor of The News thoroughly disagrees with the contentions as above set forth.

"That incorporation would bring about an increase in taxes is readily admitted.

"That the citizens here at some future time will be better able to pay this additional tax than they are today is certainly a questionable contention. It is generally admitted, and every financial survey bears this out, that the people here have more surplus money now than at any time in the history of the community.

"Now as to the question as to the extent incorporation will increase the tax burden. The News, in an editorial in a recent edition, gave a formula whereby each property owner can safely figure the maximum of what his additional tax would be. This formula was based upon a tax rate of $1.00 per $100.00 valuation, which is the maximum rate for cities of the sixth class, established by State law.

"Now, assuming that your city government should set this maximum rate ($1.00) as the rate for your city taxes, would that be DOUBLING your taxes. Certainly not—far from it. In fact, the additional tax would not amount to as much as one-fourth of the present taxes you are paying into the county tax collector's office. Bear in mind, your remittances to the county are based on a rate of $4.20 per $100 valuation.

"When we wrote the editorial setting out the contention that our proposed city government could be financed on a tax rate of $1.00 based upon present assessed valuation, we figured we would be safe in doing so, although, at that time, we did not have complete information upon the subject. We have since made further investigation, and the additional information gained thereby certainly confirms our position. In fact, the

Winners In Poppy Poster Contest

Miss Gloria Surean, Miss Marjorie Livingston and Miss Donna Pankoski are local winners in the American Legion Auxiliary sponsored poster contest for the coming Poppy drive for which Campbell Union high school students were eligible.

This national contest has three classes and each unit chairman of the Legion Auxiliary select judges for their units and the winning poster is then sent to the district for judging. The departments then judge the districts and award cash prizes in each class and there is also a national prize of $25.00 for the best poster in each class.

To add interest to the contest the local Auxiliary has awarded a first prize of $5.00 and a second prize of $2.50 to the local high school winners. Gloria Surean, the winner of the first prize, is a member of the junior class. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Surean. Winner of the second prize, Marjorie Livingston, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Livingston, is a junior also.

Donna Pankoski, winner of the third place, is a senior and the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pankoski.

Judges for the Campbell High school, selected by the Legion Auxiliary, were F. H. Cutting, well-known Campbell artist, Miss Christie Schneider, art instructor at the grammar school, and G. Martin Allen Jr., Campbell Press publisher.

The posters were judged on their appeal and the force with which they drove home the message of the veteran-made poppy, artistic ability, originality and neatness.

April To Be Cancer Month

President Truman of the United States opened cancer month at a large dinner Saturday evening and spoke about the work of the American Cancer Society. On Monday, April 2, Congress declared the month of April, Cancer Control Month.

In each of the States an organized drive for contributions began at this time. Wilbur Mitchell, commander of Legion Post No. 596, has been chosen campaign chairman for Campbell.

American Cancer Society's program includes education of the public to recognize cancers danger signals; to seek immediate diagnosis and treatment; examination centers or clinics; refreshment courses for doctors; scientific research to find out more about the cause, prevention and cure of cancer; better hospital facilities and financial aid for cancer victims.

Santa Clara County is the first in the State to open up an educational and information center. It also can boast of a new clinic to be established at the County Hospital for diagnosis at the advice of their physicians. The public is asked to cooperate with the campaign chairman in this worthy cause.

Visitors From Los Angeles

Honored guests at a family gathering at the G. A. Dahms home last weekend were Mrs. Dahm's nieces, Mrs. Emma Southerland and Mrs. Lenore Tripp, both of Los Angeles.

On Thursday, April 11, both the Campbell Union High school and the Campbell Elementary school will observe Public School Week which starts April 8, and ends April 12.

At the high school parents will be invited to "attend school" in the evening and will be given a copy of their children's programs and will then follow them in an exact replica of the students' days with the exception that classes will last for only ten minutes.

Instructors in each class will have varied entertainment for the parents, either exhibits or brief explanations of the classes. Between the fourth and fifth periods there will be a short assembly in the auditorium and after the sixth and seventh periods, refreshments will be served in the canteen.

The evening is planned to give parents an opportunity to see the school, meet the personnel and understand the nature of their children's education.

At the grammar school, in the morning of the 11th, at 9:30, the new addition to the grammar school will be formally dedicated. Children of the primary grades, under the direction of Mrs. Margaret Singleton, will have charge of the program which will include a rhythm band and a primary chorus in addition to entertainment by the kindergarten.

Following the ceremony, visitors will be taken on a tour of the new building. Parents and friends are invited to attend.

Midshipmen On Way Home

Following a round of festivities given by the Propeller Club in Panama City and Balboa, Panama, 130 cadet-midshipmen of the California Maritime Academy, on a combination goodwill, training cruise to South America, are now en route to the United States.

The youths, who, under the direction of officers, are manning the training ship Golden State on its cruise, have been feted at every port of call, according to word received by Captain Claude B. Mayo, USN, (Ret.), superintendent of the academy. At Acapulco, Mexico, large billboard displays of greeting were posted on the streets. During the port of call at Callao, Peru, the cadet-midshipmen visited Lima, where they were entertained by the United States ambassador. Enthusiastic demonstrations of friendship continued at Valparaiso, Chile, where the group were tendered a special reception by the port officials. They later toured the Andes and historical points of interest.

The Golden State is scheduled to call at San Diego, Long Beach and Santa Barbara soon before returning to the Academy at Vallejo, Calif., in mid-April.

X-Rays Available

Free chest X-rays for adults over 18 years of age are available the year round throughout Santa Clara County through the services of the Santa Clara County Tuberculosis Association which conducts this program in an effort to find early and hidden cases of tuberculosis in the community and send these persons at once to their doctors for treatment.

Trailer schedule for the next month will include every Monday at San Jose next to the Hall of Justice, with hours from 10 a. m. through 4 p. m.

On Monday a large group of Campbell people had an opportunity to express themselves concerning the location of the new post office. W. B. Hudson, postal inspector, spent the day canvassing Campbell business men and residents. He carefully wrote down each man's opinion and then went on to the next.

Although the possessor of a pleasant personality, Mr. Hudson was most cautious about expressing himself and maintained a strict impartiality in his conversation. We couldn't even get him to commit himself on the weather.

Mr. Hudson's report will be in the form of a recommendation to the postal department in Washington and the department will then make public its decision. Mr. Hudson did say that the postal inspectors are anxious to place post offices in the location which will please the greatest number of people and be most in harmony with the growth of the town.

Now all we have to do is wait and see what that will be.

Rare Flowers To Be Shown at Fair

Flowers of exquisite beauty, flown from all over the world, will be part of a four-point floriculture program to be presented during the California State Fair, August 29 through September 9, according to plans revealed by F. M. Sandusky, manager.

The famous Hall of Flowers on the fair grounds will become a veritable fairyland of floral beauty under the direction of Ken Fry, exhibit supervisor.

Richard Tongg, of the Mid-Pacific Horticulture Association of Honolulu indicated he would exhibit Clipper-flown Kahili Ginger Blossoms and Wooden Roses from Hawaii. Guam and other South Pacific areas will have native flowers on display.

Another unusual exhibitor will be George Pring Jr. of the Missouri Botanical Society, propagator of water lilies made famous by his father, noted hybridizer of water lilies.

Rare orchids in quantity, begonias, gardenias by the hundreds, the famed Bird of Paradise, as well as the rare Anthurium will be exhibited in a background of waterfalls, streams, ponds, landscaped walkways and shrubbery.

In addition to the Hall of Flowers display by professional growers, the four-point program will include displays by garden clubs, by institutions and specialty displays from overseas.

While it has been the policy to limit premiums to county exhibitors in the past, this year premiums have been established for individual exhibitors in all phases of the flower show. Competition, however, is limited to California grown exhibits.

Bill Samford Replaces Eugene Hodges

RUSSIA WAR TALK

WASHINGTON.—It's no secret that there's been considerable talk among the brass hats in the Pentagon building about war with Russia. Some of this comes from men who honestly believe war is inevitable and favor getting it over with right now. Others chiefly favor a little war talk because of its help in passing military conscription.

However, there can be no doubt about the views of the top military man in the war department—Gen. Dwight Eisenhower.

Two or three weeks ago, Eisenhower was attending a Washington dinner party when people began to talk about war with Russia. Irked by the conversation, he remarked that he was "amazed that so many people should suddenly be seriously considering the idea of war with Russia."

Then the chief of staff proceeded to give a pointed lecture on the foolishness of this war talk, which can be briefly summarized as follows:

"People who want war should only think a few minutes about the sacrifice Russia has made in the past five years—a loss of life and property so large we cannot conceive of it. A people who have suffered such a loss will not turn tail before any military force in the world today. But at the same time they will not go out and look for another war."

"And neither will we. This country is no more anxious to go to war with Russia. Our losses are enough, and we want no more. Certainly the American people do not want to get involved in a war in which there can be no end but the destruction of the greater part of the world."

"We have nothing to gain to start with, and would have nothing left when it is over."

ANTI-HOUSING LOBBY

Most powerful lobby since the war threw itself into the battle to defeat the Wyatt housing program for veterans. Every congressman received wires, phone calls, letters from builders, lumber dealers, real estate men.

Many telegrams were phony, as several congressmen discovered when they tried to answer them. Others were signed with the names of people who later assured members of Congress that they had not seen or sent these wires. These tactics of course, have been used before.

The prize telegram, however, was one sent to all congressmen from the St. Paul - Minneapolis area by the Northwestern Flooring and Lumber Company, of which V. H. Alberts is president.

After urging that the veterans' housing program be defeated, the lumber company had the gall to add:

"Please also exert your efforts to oppose a standing vote on these issues."

NO TRUMAN ROAD

Folks back in Jackson County, Mo., usually are willing to go the limit for any honor to their native son, Harry Truman. But a recent proposal to change the name of Van Horn road, an important traffic artery named after an early county pioneer, met with a storm of protest. Some of the rural citizens balked at stealing one person's tombstone to honor another.

Van Horn road was named after Col. R. T. Van Horn, who settled in the county in 1855 when Kansas City's population was about 455. He became mayor of Kansas City, was active in Missouri politics, and bought the county's first newspaper, later the Kansas City Journal, now defunct.

WALLACE AND ICKES

Church Reviews Youth Program

The Council of the Congregational church at its last meeting heard the reports of its youth program. The reports disclosed that the youth program at the present time is unusually strong. Every week the Congregational church contacts over 250 children and young people. There are six distinct areas of youth work sponsored by the church. The success of these groups can be attributed in large part to the adult leadership and the religious education committee, of which Miss Hancie Naylor is chairman, coordinates the entire youth program. Mrs. Alice Newcomb, Mr. H. Gilbert, Mr. E. R. Thompson, Mrs. David Ribble, and Mr. Robert Carlson also serve on this committee.

During the past six weeks the Sunday school has shown a considerable growth under the leadership of Mrs. Alice Newcomb, superintendent of the Sunday school, and Miss Gladys Morriam, superintendent of the primary and beginners departments. The teaching staff include Mr. Elmer Smith, Mr. T. A. Cutting, Mrs. John Duncan, Mrs. Howard Smith, Miss Hancie Naylor, Mrs. Ray Wood, Mrs. Ray Martin, Mrs. Harry Smith, Mrs. Roy Stoner, and Mr. Robert Carlson.

The Methodist and Congregational churches of Campbell jointly sponsor the released time religious education program. At the present time approximately 110 are enrolled. During the year Mrs. Newcomb, Mrs. Hugh Jones, Mrs. Carl Field, Mrs. John Polard, and Miss Farnham have represented the Congregational church on the teaching staff.

Two young peoples' groups are sponsored by the church: one for senior high young people and another for those of junior high age. The senior high Pilgrim Fellowship is one of the strongest Congregational youth groups in this area. Miss Dorothy Merriman is advisor of this group and Nina Page is president. George Ingram is president of the junior high Pilgrim Fellowship and the advisors of this group are Miss Hancie Naylor and Mr. Robert Carlson.

The Congregational church sponsors both Boy Scout Troop No. 31 and Cub Pack No. 9. The committeemen of Troop 31 are Howard Smith, chairman; Mr. Thomas Cowper, Mr. Stanley Smith, and Mr. George Jeffers. Mr. Robert Carlson is scoutmaster of Pack No. 9 and his committeemen are Mr. David Ribble, Mr. John Franzen, Mr. Art Franzen and Mr. Hans Nielsen. The Book Mark

Students of California commemorated in Monterey recently one of the more romantic episodes of this old Spanish California capital's generally romantic past—the love affair of Robert Louis Stevenson and Fanny Osborne.

The occasion was a party in honor of Mrs. Anne B. Fisher, whose new book, "No More a Stranger" a novelized story of Stevenson's struggles of heart and pen when he lived in Monterey in 1879, was published by the Stanford University Press.

The author of "Cathedral in the Sun" and "The Salinas", tells in her new book a tale as enchanting as any its hero ever told. It is the story of how the proud but penniless young author journeyed from Scotland to California to continue his seemingly hopeless courtship with a woman ten years his senior, who was married and the mother of two children.

Stevenson and Fanny Osborne had met in France. When his beloved "Folly" returned to California, she encouraged Stevenson to follow her, and eventually she got a divorce in order to marry him.

It was largely through her understanding and encouragement, according to Mrs. Fisher's book, that Stevenson later became one of the world's great writers.

The book also tells the appealing story of how old Jules Simoneau, a French restaurateur in Monterey, and other friends of the fragile Scot contrived various ways of keeping starvation away from his door during this period when he collected little from editors except rejection slips. Among other things the group contributed two dollars weekly to the editor of the local paper, who in turn paid it to Stevenson for a weekly article. Once Stevenson himself contributed to this fund, thinking it was for another cause.

No more a stranger when he left Monterey, Stevenson was given a farewell party in the back room of Simoneau's by his friends of all races. Called upon for a farewell speech, he made a brief statement which today expresses the hope of free men everywhere. "Here in the flavorsome steam we meet," he said. "Some wayfarers stay at this crossroads; others must go on their way. May the good God see fit all over the world to bring together Italians, Spaniards, Portuguese, Englishmen, Americans and Chinamen, to meet in friendship and eat in peace and happiness as they do in this back room at Simoneau's."

Weds In East, Makes Home Here

A bride of March 4, the former Miss Anna Mae McKenzie, will make her home in Campbell as the wife of Cecil Menard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles J. Menard. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William A. McKenzie of East St. Louis, Ill., she was given in marriage by her father at an elaborate ceremony in the rectory of St. Elizabeth's church, East St. Louis, on Monday, March 4, at 10:30 in the morning. The ceremony was performed by the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Peter Engel.

The bride wore a white gown with a chantilly lace bodice having a deep yoke outlined in seed pearls of a flower design. Her full net skirt swept into a short train. With this she wore an illusion veil fastened to a crown of chantilly lace and seed pearls. Her cascade bouquet was of Harasillies and lilies of the valley tied with white satin bows.

Miss Margaret Mary Skinner, Miss Margie Del Modrow and Miss Lee Goeke, the bride's attendants, wore identical gowns of mousseline de soie with large white picture hats which had open crowns and short streamers. They carried spring bouquets of snapdragons, iris, jonquils, roses, raisies, carnations, and tulips with aqua satin streamers.

For flower girl, the bride chose her niece, Miss Suzanne Warden, who wore a white frock and carried a miniature bouquet of spring flowers. She also had a halo of matching flowers.

The bridegroom was attended by Frank McKenzie, best man, and Merrill Staten and Leroy Sohn, groomsmen.

Mrs. McKenzie chose for her daughter's wedding a navy blue dress and matching accessories.

Mrs. Charles Menard, mother of the benedict, who accompanied her son East for the wedding, wore a poudre blue two-piece dress with black accessories. Both mothers wore corsages of pink carnations.

A reception was held in the evening in the Knights of Columbus club for approximately 300 guests.

The bride is a graduate of St. Teresa's academy. Mr. Menard attended East St. Louis schools and served three and one-half years in the USNR with two years overseas duty.

Registration Shows Preference

California's current voting registration is 3,781,596, a drop of 359,735 under the presidential general election in November of 1944, but 410,616 greater than for the consolidated primary of two years ago, it has been announced by Frank M. Jordan, Secretary of State.

Jordan's figures showed 2,179,996 registered as Democrats; 1,426,493, Republicans; 61,176, Prohibition; 6,499, miscellaneous; 162,432, declined to state.

In Santa Clara County the figures show: Democratic, 45,824; Republican, 40,981; Prohibition, 58; miscellaneous, 159; and those who declined to state, 2,667. This gives Santa Clara County a total registration of 89,689.

St. Patrick's Day Ceremony Unites Young Couple

At a St. Patrick's Day ceremony at St. Patrick's church, San Jose, with Father Schirli officiating, Miss Gloria Jean Broadbent became the bride of Lawrence W. Foster. Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a light blue suit with a white flowered hat and black accessories. Her corsage was of pink and white camellias.

Her sister, Mrs. Barbara Tensaschi, who served as matron of honor, was attired in a coral suit with flowered hat and black accessories. With this she wore a gardenia corsage.

The best man was the bridegroom's brother, Richard Foster. Following the ceremony a reception was held at the Legion Hall, at Hamilton and Isabel. The bride's table was centered by a white tiered wedding cake.

The new Mrs. Foster is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren B. Hewitt, N. First St., and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Windbigler, also of Campbell. The benedict's parents are Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Foster of San Jose.

After a wedding trip to Southern California, the young couple will be at home in San Jose.

Over one hundred thousand men and women joined San Francisco's Civilian Defense Council during the war.

financial figure is much more favorable than we anticipated.

"The investigation referred to is in regard to the cost of home government for the city of Shafter. Shafter has been operating of a city government for the Campbell Avenue, City of Campbell, County of Santa Clara, State of California.

That his name is ALFRED M. CONLEY and his place of residence is Route 1, Box 714, Los Gatos, County of Santa Clara, California.

"We list here the highlights of the financial statement of Shafter made at the close of its last fiscal year (figures are given in round numbers):

Shafter's total assessed valuation is $1,274,000. This valuation is acquired by assessing on a basis of 70 percent of actual valuation, instead of 50 percent under the county plan.

"Shafter's total revenues last year were approximately $25,000. Of this, $12,000 were raised from property taxes, the balance being provided through the following sources:

"Business licenses, $3,300; building permits, $150; court fines, $2,800; franchise taxes on utilities, $662; liquor licenses, $1,329.00; portion of state gas tax, $1,767; portion of state auto license taxes, $817; percentage on garbage and refuse service charges, $265; other sources, $2,000.

"Shafter's total expenditures during the past fiscal year amounted to $20,500. This money was expended for the following services:

"Operating and maintaining local fire department; maintaining old streets and building new ones; operating and maintaining police department (this includes salaries of three police officers, maintaining police automobile, and the salary of the police judge); maintaining city hall which includes the salary of the city clerk; all the necessary insurance premiums; cost of maintaining the jail; cost of sweeping the streets; and last but not least, the cost of furnishing and maintaining the street lighting system.

"The above, briefly stated, is the financial figure of the Shafter city administration, which should enable anyone to form a fair conclusion on what the approximate expenses of a Wasco city government will be.

"It is true that Wasco's expenses for certain services will be greater. This is particularly true with reference to expenses for street maintenance. We have more street area, and naturally the outlay for maintenance will be greater, but we do not believe it will be proportionately greater.

"Then again, having a much greater population, we may need more than three policemen to provide ample police protection, but since we have been getting along with a very limited police effort, surely the increase of three additional officers should suffice for the next two or three years, at least.

"While admitting that our expenses for a home government will be somewhat greater than that of Shafter's, there is another side of the question which presents a very favorable picture, and that is, our revenues will naturally be greater. This is made obvious by the following analysis:

"First, our assessed valuation (based upon the 50 per cent county plan as it is at present) will be approximately $1,450,000. If the tax rate should be set at the maximum of $1.00 per hundred, the proceeds from property taxes would be $14,500.00.

"Then there are the other revenues which are already being paid by the people here, and which would accrue to the city if we incorporate.

"On almost every item we have listed above, the revenues therefrom will be greater than that of Shafter's. This is obviously true when you bear in mind the difference in population. Shafter covers an area of only approximately 160 acres, and according to the census has around 1500 population. The boundaries of the proposed city of Wasco will include over 700 acres, and conservatively speaking, we will have a population of at least 5,000.

"Several of the items listed as revenues that will automatically angle of the incorporation question. We did so because we desired that everyone interested in this vital community question, may have definite information, so that they may be better able to make up his own mind on the subject.

"As we have stated before, The News heartily endorses the movement now going on to furnish Wasco with a home government. We believe we should have incorporated long ago. We further believe that during the post-war period, the community will have a greater need than ever for a city government. We further believe that if we don't, we will find ourselves 'asleep at the switch' in many instances as time goes on."

Food Romance

By LARRY BLAKE

It isn't much of a consolation for those who can't get the sugar they need, but for what it is worth we offer the following:

Sugar used to be so rare that when it was introduced into Europe by the Venetians it was made up into loaves and sold as medicine. For centuries the easiest way to buy sugar was to visit the apothecary, as druggists used to be called.

With the planting of cane in Sicily and Spain, the sugar supply gradually increased, while our ancestors developed such a terrifically sweet tooth they were willing to go to war, if necessary, over the question of controlling the sources of supply.

Later, they did just that. With the development of big sugar plantations operated by slave labor in the Americas, many of the wars fought by European nations owed their birth to the highly profitable sugar industry.

Just how profitable sugar was appears in the price American housewives had to pay for the sweet just before the American revolution. At that time it was selling in New York at $2.75 a pound.

Speaking of sugar—and honey can be used just as well—try this recipe for a sugar cured ham. Bring the ham to a boil in a kettle. Simmer at boiling point for three hours; remove skin; sprinkle with powdered sugar; place in roasting pan; pour in a pint of sherry; roast in oven until brown and serve.

Seeks Re-election

Assemblyman John F. Thompson, best known to residents of San Jose for his conscientious support of veterans, child care, agriculture, pension and road construction, recently made his formal announcement of candidacy for re-election from the 29th Assembly district.

Assemblyman Thompson was elected to the office without opposition by the combined votes of 24,042 Republicans and Democrats. Seeking his third term of increasingly valuable service to his district he has announced he will again file on both tickets in the June 4 primaries.

Highlights in Assemblyman Thompson's legislative career include the support of measures for the continuation of the $50 per month payment to California's senior citizens, improvement of conditions for the care of indigent women and children, aid for the blind and other handicapped persons, reduction of the sales and income tax, and additional aid for returning servicemen and women. He was co-author of most of the veteran's bills passed at the recent session of the Legislature.

Unique Show at Cal. Poly

An invitation to attend the "only fair on a college campus in the United States" on May 3 and 4 was extended to the residents of Campbell in San Luis Obispo today by a former Campbell student now attending the California Polytechnic college. The invitation came from Robert Bogner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Bogner. Bogner is a student of meat animals, having entered Cal Poly in September of 1939.

One of the most unique celebrations held on any college campus in the United States, Poly Royal is to be held for the 14th successive year on the 2000-acre campus and farm of the California Polytechnic college in San Luis Obispo. This two-day "country fair on a college campus" is actually a large scale open house program in which all the activities and facilities of the State's only technical college for agriculture and industry are placed on display for the benefit of thousands of visitors who come from all parts of the State for the occasion.

As a regular extra-curricular activity of the Cal Poly student body, Poly Royal is planned, managed and directed by student leaders from every department of the college as a "show window" of the educational progress of this college which is recognized nationally as a pioneer and model of vocational training on a college level.

The Poly Royal show does not confine itself to exhibits of finely bred livestock, judging contests, mechanical and scientific demonstrations, but like a "big-time" fair or exposition many entertainment features are part of the program.

The annual rodeo, featuring collegiate and professional performers, is an outstanding event. Some of the other features will be: sack sewing contest, tractor driving contest; ladies' nail driving contests, plant identification contests, livestock judging contests, musical entertainment, a real western barbecue, a "Coronation ball", athletic events and an open house of the new 125-unit "veterans village", where married veterans and their families live on the campus.

1500 Ships Now In San Francisco Bay

San Francisco Bay now harbors more than 1500 ships. Last week it was announced that 1560 vessels, Navy and Merchant Marine, active and idle, were in the harbor, constituting the greatest number in San Francisco's history.

Literally hundreds of these ships can be seen by visitors as they cross the bay bridge, or from such favored spots as Telegraph Hill and Twin Peaks.

San Francisco's War Memorial Building and Opera House were the scene of the United Nations Conference on International Organization in 1945.

Symphony Tomorrow Night

"Every Soul Is a Circus"

Although only 50 miles away, the San Francisco Symphony Orchestra, which plays in San Jose tomorrow night, April 5, is one of the finest in America. Under Pierre Monteux it has risen to highest rank, and tomorrow night's program, including the Caesar Franck Symphony and the Wandered Fantasie for piano and orchestra, with Adolph Baller as soloist, is exciting a furor of enthusiasm.

Pierre Monteux was formerly conductor in Paris, then at Covent Garden and Drury Lane in London, and in the opera houses of Berlin, Vienna and Budapest. In 1919 he was called to head the Boston Symphony and his five years there made it one of the leading symphonies of the world. He then returned to conduct in Paris and Holland, accepting the San Francisco post in 1936.

Martha Graham Next Dance Event

The most important dance event of the year on the Pacific Coast is the return, after five years' absence, of the "ranking U. S. dancer", the exciting and daring Martha Graham, who, with her com-

Robert Grim At Home

Former Sergeant Robert Grim, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Grim, who was recently discharged from the service is now at home with his family in Willow Glen. He returned shortly before his brother, Arnold Grim, former Army Air Force Captain, left with his wife and daughter to make their home in Macon, Georgia.

Among recent visitors at the Grim home have been several Army Air Force officers including Col. Mortimer Brennan of New York City, Col. Bruce Daly of Los Gatos, and Col. John Walsh, Chief of Navy Air Force Chaplains in the United States, Washington, D. C.

Campbell High PTA Officers To Be Installed

State Extension Director Mrs. B. D. Ralston, will install the officers-elect for Campbell Union High PTA on April 10, at 2:30 o'clock in the Little Theater. All reports must be ready for presentation.

The annual mothers' tea by the Girls' League will be held during the social hour and the executive board will meet at 1:30 in Superintendent J. W. Dent's office.

Easter Breakfast Planned

The youth group of the Methodist church is planning an Easter morning breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Buck before attending services in a body.

Many of 35 dancers and musicians will be seen in the San Jose Auditorium on next Monday evening, April 8. With American-born dancers from Seattle, Sacramento, San Jose, New York and the Middle West, the California-claimed Martha Graham has what John Martin of New York Times called "... by all odds the most successful dance company this year ...". The Graham dances spring from the American soil: they are startling and revolutionary, and "sweep you off your feet".

Two dance dramas and a comedy will make the program: Appalachian Spring, Letter to the World, and Every Soul is a Circus.

Campbell Justice Court

Judge John D. Blaine's docket for March shows 11 arrests by the Highway Patrol in Campbell Township for minor traffic violations. Four were for double parking in Campbell's business district and seven were not stopping at stop signs in other parts of the township.

In March of last year, arrests for the same violations were 19, but it appears that the relative number of arrests has little to do with the relative number of minor violations. Minor violations of highway rules in this township probably total hundreds each month. Arrests simply represent the activity in this township of the highway patrolmen.

The docket shows the arrest of one speeder and of one driver who parked too near the entrance of Campbell's fire house. All of these violations drew fines.

A young man who picked a fight while under the influence of liquor was fined for battery, and another citizen was picked up by the Highway Patrol for staggering on a public road and fined for violating County Ordinance No. 108, or "drunk in county".

While under the influence of intoxicating liquor a citizen of San Jose drove into a house belonging to a Campbell resident. The driver paid for the damages and was fined $100 for drunken driving.

A boy of 15 who was careless in his use of a small rifle was brought to the attention of the County Juvenile Probation Department. The local court itself has no jurisdiction in juvenile matters except as they are referred back to the local court by the county juvenile court.

Transportation Corps Captain Visits

Mr. and Mrs. LBen Howard were surprised Sunday by a visit from Mrs. Howard's brother, Capt. Kenneth Abraham, Army Transportation Corps, who was en route to his Portland, Oregon home to see his wife and two-year-old baby whom he has seen only once. In the service since the beginning of the war, Captain Abraham has served in Leyte and Manila. He waited 42 days in Sabu for transportation home.
